This sexy calendar will get your pulse racing – featuring naked models draped over coffins.

The racy wall planner – inspired by the classic Pirelli Calendar – was created by coffin manufacturer Lindner to help boost sales.

Zbigniew Lindner, founder of the Polish company, said: "We enjoy showing our beautiful coffins, and what better way than including beautiful girls."

"So much work goes into our coffins that are only seen for a few moments at the funeral.

"We wanted to show that a coffin shouldn't be a sacred object – it's furniture, it's the last bed you'll ever sleep in."

Some of the images in the calendar depict death and suffering, with August's image shows a naked man holding a flaming coffin while a topless beauty attacks him with blades and a whip.

The calendar, shot by Piotr Falencik, also features a sunken submarine and the Titanic as computer-generated backdrops for the gorgeous girls and their unusual coffins.

The Pirelli Calendar is the world's most famous topless calendar, and features artistic shots of famous models and actresses such as Kate Moss and Penelope Cruz.
